

CONNECTING TO
CREATE WHAT'S NEXT

Virtual Training Presenter Biographies

NCMAHQ Virtual Training: Inflation, Price Adjustments, and Extraordinary Actions

Date of Live Training: May 11, 2023

Dr. Renee Butler

Dr. Renee Butler is the Defense Acquisition University (DAU) Learning Director for Contract Price, Cost, and Finance. Dr. Butler has over 34 years of experience in government contracting. She is responsible for the development and maintenance of all pricing-related learning assets at DAU, including virtual instructor led and on-line learning assets, communities of practice, pricing tools, and workshops. The most enjoyable aspect of her current position is helping students gain confidence and mastery of complex pricing concepts.

Before coming to DAU, Dr. Butler spent 21 years on active duty with the Air Force with experience as a Warranted Procuring Contracting Officer; Squadron Commander; Air Force Materiel Command Chief of Pricing, Finance and Specialized Policy; Air Force Space Command Staff Officer; and Instructor of Cost and Price Analysis at the Air Force Institute of Technology, in both the continuing professional education and graduate programs. In 1999, Dr. Butler was named the Air Force Outstanding Staff Officer in Contracting.

Dr. Butler holds a Doctor of Business Administration Degree with a concentration in Finance. She is a graduate of Ohio University with a Bachelor of Business Administration in Management, and Troy University with a Master of Science Degree in Management. Dr. Butler is certified Level III in Contracting and Level I in Program Management under the Acquisition Professional Development Program. She also holds a certificate in Project Management.

CONNECTING TO
CREATE WHAT'S NEXT

Virtual Training Presenter Biographies

NCMAHQ Virtual Training: Inflation, Price Adjustments, and Extraordinary Actions

Date of Live Training: May 11, 2023

Ms. Julia A. LoBosco

Ms. Julia LoBosco became the Chief, Office of Acquisition and Procurement Law within the Coast Guard, Office of the Judge Advocate General in September 2022. Ms. LoBosco leads a team of attorneys located in Washington, DC and functions as a key leader within a procurement law group totaling 20 acquisition attorneys across the Coast Guard. She advises the leadership of the Coast Guard mission support enterprise regarding contract and fiscal law, legislation, and acquisition policy. Ms. LoBosco is a member of several Coast Guard acquisition and workforce management councils. Ms. LoBosco also is the program attorney for the Coast Guard's Offshore Patrol Cutter, the Coast Guard's top acquisition priority and largest acquisition in its history. Prior to assuming the role of chief. Ms. LoBosco served as a procurement attorney for 12 years.

Prior to that assignment, she served as a Contract Specialist for the Coast Guard from October 2007 to December 2009.

Ms. LoBosco graduated from Washington College, with a B.A. in Political Science. She received a Juris Doctor from the University of Baltimore School of Law in Baltimore, Maryland, and is a member of the Maryland Bar. Ms. LoBosco earned her LLM in Government Procurement Law from the George Washington University Law School in 2013. She joined the Coast Guard Office of Procurement Law in 2009.

Ms. LoBosco is the recipient of the Coast Guard Civilian Service Commendation Medal and the Coast Guard Spirit of Excellence Award. Ms. LoBosco has been published in the ABA's Public Contract Law Journal and has presented at several procurement law courses and symposiums.

Ms. LoBosco and her husband Vincent reside in Fairfax Station, VA with their two daughters, Avery and Harper and their rescue dog, Sylvie. Ms. LoBosco's hobbies include running, skiing, and attending her daughters' many lacrosse tournaments.